

S<sup>4</sup> Social Science Student Symposium

THURSDAY, May 3, 2018

California State University, Long Beach

Registration
Deadline
April 8, 2018

Who can participate? All undergraduate and graduate students, from all CSU campuses and community colleges, doing research in any social science field.

What is it? An opportunity to present your research to your peers and compete for a cash award. Presentations will be approximately 12 minutes. Travel funds may be available for up to $100 per paper. There will be three $500 awards: Best undergraduate paper, best graduate paper, and best use of quantitative data in a paper.

How do I participate? If you want to compete for one of the cash awards you have to submit a full paper (maximum 20 pages). To present your research but not compete for an award, you just need to submit an abstract.

For more details and to register, visit: www.ssrlic.org/participate/src

