

PLEASE POST

PLEASE POST

THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH AND INSTRUCTIONAL COUNCIL

15TH ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE

STUDENT PERSPECTIVES ON SOCIAL AND POLITICAL RESEARCH

May 10, 1990
Cal Poly Pomona

PURPOSE

To encourage and recognize original research at the graduate and undergraduate level.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Sandra H. Berry, Director, Survey Research Group
The Rand Corporation

STUDENT PANELS

Students from many disciplines throughout the California State University system will present their original research and ideas on society and politics in a convention setting. There will be cash awards and plaques for the best papers presented.

Papers describing research designed to test hypotheses or develop theory regarding subjects broadly defined as social or political are invited. Students from all majors are welcome.

TO ENTER PAPERS

For information regarding submission of papers, call John Korey at (714) 869-3885, or contact:

Sponsored by:

California State Lottery Distinguished Visiting Scholars/Artist Fund
College of Arts, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona
Arts Council, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

