

The California State University
Social Science Research and Instructional Council's 16TH ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Student Perspectives on Social & Political Research

May 9, 1991

CSU Hayward

Purpose:

To encourage and recognize original research at the graduate and undergraduate level. Awards for best papers presented.

Program:

Students from many CSU campuses will present their original research and ideas on society and politics in a convention setting.

Papers describing research designed to test hypotheses or develop theory regarding subjects broadly defined as social or political are invited. Student papers from all majors are welcome and encouraged.

To Enter Papers:

For information regarding submission of papers, contact Professor Dan Graves, CSU Hayward, (415) 881-3221, or contact your campus SSRIC representative:
