

S⁴

45th Annual

Social Science Student Symposium

CSU The California State University

THURSDAY, May 7, 2020
at Cal State - San Bernardino

Submission
Deadline:
March 10, 2020

S⁴ is a "student only" conference that allows CSU students to present research in a supportive environment! Quantitative or Qualitative. (12-15 min. presentations)

Who? Any Cal State University "Social Science" student, broadly

Cost: Free (includes free breakfast & lunch for presenters)

Registration: Submit a 150-250 word abstract by the deadline (or: submit an abstract & full paper to be eligible for a paper award)

Paper Awards: ($500 each)
Best Undergraduate, Best Graduate, Best use of Quantitative Data

Limited (up to $100) travel awards available for non-CSUSB students

For more details and to register, visit: www.ssrlic.org/participate/src

The SSRIC, founded in 1972, is the oldest CSU "affinity group". With representatives from each Cal State campus, the SSRIC is dedicated to assisting social science students and faculty with research, teaching, and learning.